My husband and I are owners of the adjoining section to the proposed units. I am a major shareholder of the section (vacant) next to number 1 - opposite the proposed units and have no objection at all of the proposed units. Rāpaki was the most destroyed Pa, with rockfall demolishing 1/3rd of housing. The Kaumatua flats housed Kaumatua who had suffered house loss - a list of displaced whānau outweigh the current flats available. Rāpaki desperately need housing for our Kaumatua + people who want to come home.

J. Swindells
